

Dates

The program runs from September to June, with a new intake (or 'cohort') every year.

The application process

This involves short answer questions, reflection essays, and an interview. It is free to apply.

- Read the FAQs document
- Stage 1 - Fill out the online application form
 - For this stage, you will need a PDF copy of your CV or resumé, or the link to your LinkedIn page
 - Admission to Stage 2 is on a rolling basis
- Stage 2 – Interview via Zoom with program coordinators
- Stage 3 – Invitation to join the community, discernment period before the candidate accepts or rejects their offer

First offers will be made between March and May. However, we advise applicants to apply as soon as possible so as to obtain priority review status and maximise the discernment period.
